Simplified
Make room for what matters most to you.

Optimized
Beautiful solutions to get the most out of your space.

Revitalized
Love where you live and work.

Getting organized can feel like mission impossible.

Especially when you don't even know where to start.

Does it sound like you?

- You want to love your space, but don't have the time or energy to organize.
- You want to have friends and family over, but feel embarrassed by your space.
- You've been organized in the past, but couldn't maintain it.
- You're ready for change, but overwhelm keeps you from taking action.
- You have a vision of your ideal space, but need help bringing it to life.

Your space should be your sanctuary - not another source of stress.

Imagine what life would be like if you could...

- Free yourself of clutter
- Save time and money
- Use your space efficiently
- Entertain with confidence
- Feel inspired by your space

Finally, organization made easy.

Like an "easy button" for home organization, I help you transform your disorganized space into a safe haven you love to live in.

PROFESSIONAL ORGANIZER AND LUXURY DESIGNER

Hi, I'm Diana McAllister

I help people throughout the San Luis Obispo area create powerful organization systems that allow you to finally enjoy your home - and your life.

Transforming spaces that feel stressful into ones that feel calm has always been my passion. Because when we have peace over our environment, we can face whatever comes our way. Organization is a tool, and I understand that we can't talk to each other until we need clarity, direction, or a path to move in the right direction. I can't wait to help you transform your space!

ABOUT DIANA

How does Tidy Design Pro put you first?

- Judgment Free and Confidential
This time is for you. You'll feel comfortable and supported every step of the way.
- Custom Solutions
Every space is unique to your unique space, needs, and lifestyle.
- Visible Results that Last
We'll make sure the system is simple for you to maintain over time.
- Thoughtful Interior Styling
Organization shouldn't be invisible to your visitors and made in a cramped, dark, cold, and impersonal way.
- Reliable and Honest Service
From my scheduling and clear communication to timely service, transparency, and trust, you are our #1.

DIANA McALLISTER IS A PROFESSIONAL ORGANIZER SERVING SAN LUIS OBISPO COUNTY.

I believe in the power of simplifying your life.

As a professional organizer, my mission is to help you streamline and simplify your life so that you can spend more time doing what you love. The environment we live in has an incredibly deep impact on our mental, emotional, and physical health. And I've felt the stress that clutter and disorganization has on the mind and body – both personally and through clients who were facing the same challenges as you. Through organization, we clear the chaos of everyday life and create functional systems that restore your sense of power and purpose. A space that used to drain and derail you, now leaves you calm, inspired, and on steady ground.

How I Help

I believe everyone deserves a space that they can feel good in and grow into. Together, we'll take a grounded and compassionate approach to creating an organizational system that functions beautifully within your life.

- ### 1

Compassionate Guidance

Finding someone you feel you can trust to deliver results can be daunting. Our work together should feel easy and comfortable for you. You'll feel heard, supported, and taken care of throughout the entire process.
- ### 2

Hit the "Easy Button"

I'm here every step of the way to make our work together feel like a weight is lifted off your shoulders. Everything is taken care of for you – I haul away donations, bring my own tools, and curate the best organization solutions to fit in your budget. All you have to do to show up ready to make change!
- ### 3

Systems that Work

Together, we'll paint a picture of what a comfortable and productive space means for you. We'll set goals that inspire you and put organizational systems in place that will get you there – and also stand the test of time. You'll walk away feeling confident in maintaining your new systems and excited to start fresh.

My Organization & Design Ethos

You are what you see

We consume our surroundings, just like we consume food. For us to be our best selves, reach our goals, and live the life we want, we have to give ourselves the right environment to do so. We can't always control what city we live in or where our workplaces is. What we can control is our home (or workspace). By creating order, stability, and joy in your immediate environment, you set yourself up for your best results.

Keep it simple (and streamlined)

I believe you should own your things, not the other way around. Through the years, I've learned that keeping things simple and organized puts me in control of my life. And it can do the same for you! A well-structured environment and workflow not only simplifies your life, but unspools your mind and reduces your stress. But simplicity doesn't mean boring. We also incorporate beauty into your systems to feed your creative soul.

Invite inspiration in

I work with the mindset that your home and workspace should support and inspire you to create your best life and your best work. When you clear your space, you make room for the items, activities, and people that are most valuable to you. There is no greater joy than watching the weight melt off clients' shoulders after decluttering and organizing their space. I can't wait to see your transformation next!

CLUTTER CHRONICLES

From exhausted caregiver to happy hostess.

Meet Emily, Home Organization Client

Emily was always a highly organized and competent woman. She ran a tight ship and embodied the Martha Stewart lifestyle. Everything in her home was carefully curated to match the seasons and everything had its place. She loved having friends over and her home was filled with warmth and laughter.

But then everything changed.

When her mother fell ill, Emily became a full-time, sole caretaker overnight. The emotional and physical drain from putting the needs of another before her own robbed her of all her energy. Slowly, the home she had so lovingly created for her family and friends began to fall apart. Clutter crept in, boxes piled up, and comfort shopping took over what little breathing space remained.

Now, too embarrassed to have friends over, the home fell silent. Emily was no longer happy in her home. She was too tired and too overwhelmed by the clutter to do anything about it. What she needed was hope, and above all, HELP. Emily decided enough was enough and reached out for help.

After assessing Emily's home, I could see how much she once loved it. What she needed was a guide to transformation and I was going to do everything in my power to give her her life back. So, I stepped in and took care of all the details for her. Bit by bit, we worked through the clutter in a way that felt comfortable and easy for her.

Today, Emily no longer feels like a prisoner in her own home. She has found her space and found herself again. And yes, the parties are back on! She recently sent pictures of her first party with friends in years – she was beaming from ear to ear.
